

Edmondsley Primary School

21/09/15

School Crossing Patrol

Durham County Council are looking for a short term replacement for John Bowes, our School Crossing Patrol. As always, please can all car drivers consider where they are parking to ensure the safety of all your children. Meanwhile, Police Officers and PCSOs will patrol the area whenever possible.

Friends of Edmondsley Macmillan Morning.

Please come along to Friends of Edmondsley's Macmillan Morning on Friday 25th September 9am – 10am in our school hall. Drinks and cake will be available to purchase.

Parent Questionnaires

Thank you to everyone who have returned their Parent Questionnaires promptly. In order for us to take as many views and opinions into account, please can all be returned by Friday 25th September.

Fire and Rescue Service Competition

Edmondsley Primary School has been chosen to take part in a Fire and Rescue Service Competition along with seven other schools.

The competition involves each child designing a poster that would help raise awareness of the dangers associated with fireworks and/or fires in the home. Each entry (one per child) has to be A4 size and computers are NOT to be used. Child's name, school and age should be written on the back.

Entries will be collected on Wednesday 7th October and the school will be notified of the winner from each school involved.

The winner will be invited to High Handenhold Fire Station at 18:30hrs on Tuesday 3rd November 2015, where they will meet the Fire Crew and help with important fire fighting training. Richard Bambrough, who is organising the competition, is happy for the winner's family to come along on the day, however, only the winning child will be able to participate in the fire training.

Raising Money for charities

Different charities will continue to be discussed this week with your children during Assembly time. On Monday, Jim from 'Link to Hope' discussed 'Family Shoe Box Appeal.' If your child is interested in nominating a charity, I will encourage them to do so by Friday 25th September. The following week will be used for your child to persuade peers to vote for their charity of choice.

Parent Support Advisor Contact Details

Judith Young, our Parent Support Advisor is available to discuss and give support regarding various situations parents find themselves in! Please contact her directly 07900702326.