

Edmondsley Primary and Nursery School

Welcome Mrs Rutherford

We have successfully recruited an Office Admin Support who will start work in our office on 1st December every morning. We are looking forward to welcoming Mrs Rutherford to our Team.

TEAMS Assignments

We will embark on our second trial of TEAMS this week. Teachers will set 'assignments' and let you know when you can access them via TEXT message. I can see already that some of you, having received the text message from your class teacher at the end of last week, have already completed the work set and handed it in. This is a great start!

Thank you once again for your patience and the time to complete Survey Monkey which gave us a good insight to the issues some of you faced.

For the lucky ones, who had no issues whatsoever, the 'assignments' looked brilliant and teachers say a huge 'Thank you.' For those of you who had username and password issues, I hope this has been resolved now and you are able to log in with no problem.

It is, as we have said before, new to us all, so genuine thanks to staff, parents and children.
