Dear children of Edmondsley Primary School,

It has been lovely to see so many more of you using Teams to meet up with your teachers this week. I am extremely impressed with Butterfly class and their phonics learning. Keep up the good work everyone and remember to thank the adults in your house who are helping you. They are so special.

Our School Promise

I wonder who has kept our School Promise? Who was very honest and didn't tell any lies?

Next week, all adults will be taking a special notice of children who remember to say please and thank you. If you remember to do this, an adult in your house might e-mail your class teacher and let them know – you might be awarded the trophy – virtually of course!

Polite and Caring, That's what we are.
Respect and Kindness, takes us far,
Open and Honest, we don't tell lies
Manners are important, everyone tries
I is in united, teamwork's the prize,
Strive to be the best you can be,
Everyone aims high at Edmondsley.

Milk Bottle Tops

How many have you collected now? Can you count them in twos?

Quad Competition

Have you started thinking about our quad in school? I'm so pleased Mrs Welsh suggested this idea of having a competition. I have a few ideas of my own, but I'm pretty sure you will have even better ideas than me! Start writing or drawing your ideas as we start to think of prizes for the best ideas!

Try this at home ...

1. Starting at the feet, gently squeeze the muscles in the feet by tightening them, then slowly releasing.
2. Next, squeeze the large muscles in the calves for 5 seconds, then gently release. Working your way up the body, squeeze the thigh muscles for 5 seconds then gently release.
3. Continue moving up the body for more relaxation.

Super Sticker Sheets

I am impressed with how many stickers everyone has been awarded. You are working so well at home. Watch out for the post next week – there might be something extra special – just for you!

Goodbye for now,

Mrs Rees
