Dear parents and children of Stag Class,

I would like to introduce you to Mr Scriven. Mr Scriven has been teaching the children in Stag class for a little while now and will continue next week.

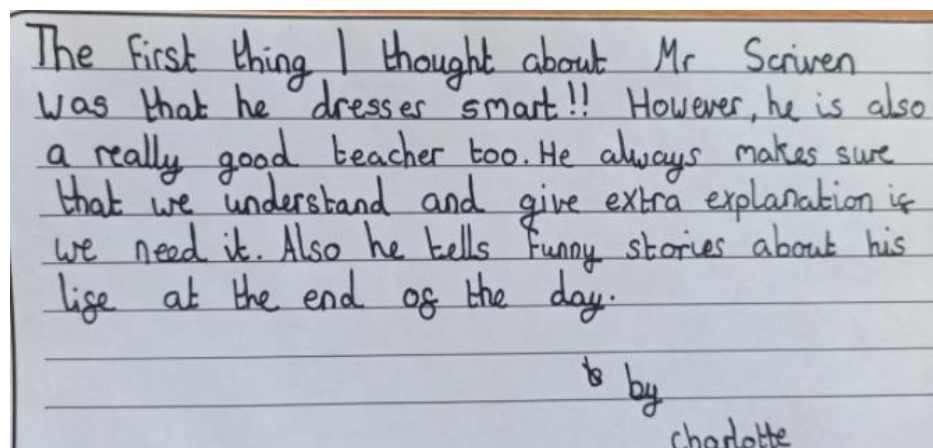

This is what the children think about him ...

Mr Scriven is one of best teacher I have ever had. He is kind, smart and nice and I hope he comes back or stays for a long time.

Mr. Scriven is very approachable because when I had a problem I went to him and he really helped and felt much better. You can always count on Mr. Scriven to make you feel much better when you have a problem and the next time we have a supply I hope he comes back.

The first thing I thought about Mr Scriven was that he dresses smart!! However, he is also a really good teacher too. He always makes sure that we understand and give extra explanation if we need it. Also he tells funny stories about his life at the end of the day.

Mr Scriven is our current supply teacher, he is very nice (and sometimes a bit silly). Whilst he always has high expectations for us, he also allows us to talk and ask questions when it is appropriate to do so. Furthermore, he makes learning fun and is very good at explaining things.

Mr Scriven always tries to make learning fun and tries to make us laugh. He is smart and he is funny. He does so much to help us learn and encourages us to be independent. I am happy to have a supply teacher who is really nice.

Mr Scriven is smart kind and tells us funny and interesting stories because he is very helpful to our learning.

Mr. Scriven is very funny. For example, when we had music he ~~through~~ threw his cup (that was being used as a drum) out of the fire exit in frustration - as a joke!! He also tells really funny stories about what has happened to him and his family in the past. I really like him as as a teacher and I think you will too!

I think that Mr. Scriven is a really good teacher. He makes learning fun C. to most children <sup>and</sup> this usually difficult to do. He is also very reasonable - there are times when he needs us to be fully focused and times where he allows us to have a low-level chat, as long as we remain on task. I also love listening to the stories that he tells us, he is a very interesting person and is very engaging in the way that he speaks. He is a I think he is a great teacher and I think you will be

Mr. Scriven is fun, caring and smart. He is not boring at all but is approachable, helpful and if you are down he will make you giggle, he is motivating and strict. It really is a treat to have him as our teacher.

Hi,

My name is Mr Scriven. I have been a teacher for 8 years now and, after leaving a school in Sunderland where I taught Year 6, I am now working as a supply teacher. One of the best parts about being a supply teacher is that I get to go to lots of different schools and work with lots of different children. I have particularly enjoyed this over the past couple of weeks that I have been at Edmondsley Primary School. I am very much looking forward to teaching a full class of children again though and meeting you all, on Monday: I am sure that you are looking forward to coming back to school as well, as we begin the return to normal life. I know that the children who have been in class are excited to see you too!

See you soon,
Mr Scriven

Please take care everyone and see you soon.

Best wishes

Mrs Angela Rees
Head Teacher
