Quad Competition winners

Thank you for all the entries we have received. We have chosen the following children for either their wonderful drawings or descriptions of what our quad can be used for and what it should look like. An amazon gift card is on it's way to you!

We received many entries with some wonderful ideas such as snake tanks, chicken coops, swimming pool, roller coaster, ball pool, tree house with ladders and tyre swings, ice cream stall, sand pit and spar with foot massage!

Here are our winners!

- Olly (Reception class) for his suggestion of a bench made from bottles
- Catherine (Year 1 Hedgehog Class) for her suggestions of a mindful flower garden
- Meg (Year 3/4 Rabbit Class) for her detailed information ...

"The story quad has a story throne which is a flowery metal chair for the teacher to sit on while they read. There are 2 flower beds next to it with pretty flowers inside. There are fluffy mats that are for the children to sit on. There is a fruit bowl and milk tray for snack time so you can eat your snacks while you listen to the story. All the stories are kept in a book shed. There will be coloured chalk to draw on the walls with. Also when it is time for children to do their reading to the teacher they go out there and sit on the mats".

- Leo for his wonderful drawing of art sculptures (Year 3/4 Rabbit Class)
- Holly for her drawings of welly planters and log chairs. (Year 3/4 Rabbit Class)
- Alex for his idea of turning it into a reading area. (Year 4/5 Deer Class)
- Lara for the wonderful idea of using artificial grass to brighten the area up. (Year 4/5 Deer Class)

We all look forward to seeing the quad being transformed into a peaceful quiet area for all classes to use with art sculptures, welly planters, log chairs and artificial grass to brighten the area up.

Anyone got any contacts for reduced cost of artificial grass - or even better free?
Please speak to Mrs Rutherford in our Office.

Covid19

Please message 07398496026 to report if your child has had symptoms on Saturday or Sunday and subsequently tested positive for Covid19. This will allow me to follow procedures and inform the rest of his or her Bubble to isolate. Please remember to text your child's name.
