

English

In English during this half term, we will be exploring the texts 'The Arrival' by Shaun Tan, The Highway man (poem) and Zoo by Anthony Browne. We will be writing:

- To persuade/balanced arguments
- Non-chronological reports
- Poetry

Maths

In Maths during this half term, we will be able to:

- read, write, order and compare numbers up to 10 000 000 and determine the value of each digit
- identify the value of each digit to three decimal places
- multiply and divide numbers by 10, 100 and 1 000
- round any whole number to a required degree of accuracy
- Solve four operation multi-step problems, deciding which operations & methods to use & why

Science

In Science during this half term, we will answer the question; what came first, the chicken or the egg? We will look at life cycles and discuss similarities and differences between them. We'll also learn classifying animals plants based on specific characteristics.

We will be learning to:

- Understand how plants reproduce
- Create classification keys to identify plants and animals
- Draw life cycles for a range of living things.

Geography

In Geography this term, we will be working with OASES to learn about climate change and we'll take part in the John Muir award.

We will be learning to:

- Understand and explain the impact of climate change on our planet
- Create a short film using green screen technology to educate others about climate change.
- Take action to reduce the impact

Stag Class - Autumn 1 Curriculum Grid

PE

Our PE day is Tuesday. The children will need to come to school in their PE kits for this day. We will be doing indoor athletics. We will be taking part in swimming lessons on a Monday. Children will need their swimming kit including a swimming costume, towel, goggles and a swimming hat.

Religious Education

This half term in RE, we will be exploring how and why people use rituals today.

We will be exploring:

- Similarities and differences between religions by looking
- at a feature of religion (ritual)
- The importance of symbol and ritual for expressing beliefs.

Computing

In computing this half term, our focus will be developing our ability to present information to different audiences.

We will be learning to:

- change backgrounds and manipulate text.
- use spell check & synonyms function effectively.
- Using Excel to create spreadsheets

Art

In art this term our focus will be portraying relationships in portraits.

We will be learning:

- To improve our mastery of drawing, painting and sculpture with a range of materials
- About historic artists, architects and designers

Personal, Social, Health, Relationship and Citizenship Education What's new?

In PSHRC this term, our focus will be relationships and we will be focusing on how friends can communicate safely.

We will be learning to:

- Use social media safely .
- explore the different types of relationships people have in their lives

Music

In Music this term, we will be taking part in a live online performance with the Royal Opera House.

We will be learning to:

- Explore the building blocks of opera
- Learning an opera song and how to stage it
- Showcasing our work through digital culmination